Property Description

A beautifully presented three-bedroom terraced home, perfectly positioned within a peaceful cul-de-sac and enjoying the benefits of an excellent school catchment area.

From the moment you step inside, the sense of warmth and style is evident. The elegant living room, enhanced by a striking feature fireplace and a generous bay window, creates a light-filled yet cosy setting, ideal for both relaxation and entertaining.

The refitted kitchen has been thoughtfully designed with modern finishes, while the contemporary bathroom offers a sleek, luxurious space to unwind.

Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, with flexibility for family living, a guest room, or home working.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a private enclosed rear garden, a perfect retreat for summer evenings, complemented by the rare benefit of a double garage offering both parking and storage.

Tucked away in a highly sought-after cul-de-sac, this home combines tranquillity with convenience, making it an outstanding choice for a professional couple, first-time buyer, or young family seeking style, comfort, and a location to cherish.
