Summary of Property

Introducing a neutrally decorated semi-detached bungalow for sale, offering an idyllic setting for families, couples, or those looking towards retirement. Built in 2001, this property is well-connected with mains water, electricity, drainage and comes under Somerset Council Tax Band C - £2,000.42 for 2024/25.

The property boasts two well-sized reception rooms, each with their unique features. Reception room one is flooded with natural light and features a fire surround & fire, while reception room two not only could work well as a dining room or bedroom, offers views of the garden and direct access leading further into a conservatory space.

The kitchen, illuminated by natural light, has been thoughtfully designed with wall, base, and drawer units, inclusive of an oven, hob, extractor, space for a fridge/freezer and a washing machine. With a single sink and drainer positioned with views the the front garden.

Further along, there are two bedrooms, each with a distinct charm. Bedroom one is exceptionally large on the first floor, complete with two built-in double wardrobes, an en-suite bathroom and a Velux window. The en-suite bathroom comes with a panel bath with a mixer tap, a low-level WC and a pedestal wash hand basin.

Bedroom two is a comfortable double room. The second bathroom is a shower room featuring a walk-in shower, a low-level WC and a vanity unit with a WHB. The property also benefits from an EPC rating of D.

Located near public transport links, local amenities, walking, and cycling routes, this property offers convenience and lifestyle opportunities. A garden, two owned parking spaces, and a chalet-bungalow design are unique features that add to the property's appeal.
