Important Information – Please Read

Registering to bid and Administration fee

Cooper and Tanner requires all bidders who wish to bid at our Auction to register beforehand, whether you are intending on bidding in the room, by proxy or online. As part of the registration process, you will be asked to provide card details in order that the Buyer's Administration Fee of £1,395 inc VAT can be paid if you are successful. A week before the auction a hold will be placed on your account for this sum, which will then be released if you are unsuccessful. This fee will only be taken if you are the successful buyer. The fee is retained by Cooper and Tanner and does not form part of your deposit or completion settlement.

Please also be aware that the Buyer's Administration fee is payable per lot purchased and applicable to all pre-auction sales. If you are successful in purchasing more than one lot, we will contact you following the auction to take subsequent payments for additional lots bought.

All checks required by current anti-money laundering legislation must be satisfactorily completed, as part of the registration process before prior approval to bid will be granted; this will include providing proof of funds.

Fees

Potential buyers should be aware that there may be additional fees payable to the Vendor's solicitor on completion of the sale, details of which will be contained within the auction pack for each lot. At the launch of the property onto the market this information is not always available and so interested parties must refer to the auction pack and satisfy their enquiries.

Deposit

Successful bidders will be required to pay to the Cooper and Tanner Client Account the deposit of 10% of the purchase price within 24 hours of the auction. The account details will be provided to the successful bidder on conclusion of the auction. Once funds are cleared, they will be transferred on to the account of the solicitor acting for the seller. Please ensure that funds are in an account suitable to be able to make an Electronic Transfer from.

Buying at Auction with Cooper and Tanner

COOPER
AND TANNER

Introduction

Cooper and Tanner have a department dedicated specifically to the sale and marketing of land and property by auction. In today's market, the auction process remains a popular method of sale with both buyers and sellers. This guide covers the process of buying at auction and the benefits for you including speed, transparency and certainty of sale.

How to Bid

We offer three methods of bidding, these being, online, by proxy or in room at the Bath and West Showground, where our monthly auctions are conducted. In order to bid by any of these methods, you will first need to register online via our website. The process is simple; you create an account by providing your contact details and inform us of your chosen method of bidding. You will be required to verify your email address, by clicking an activation link that we'll send to you via email. Once you've created an account you can 'watch' lots that you're interested in (you'll be kept up-to-date throughout the lead up to the auction), as well as gain access to the legal packs prior to auction.

Please note, you will also be asked to verify your mobile number and upload copies of your photographic ID (e.g. driver's licence or passport) and recent proof of address (dated within the last 3 months).

Terms and Conditions

During the registration process, you will be asked to read and accept our Auction Terms and Conditions. Additionally, there may be specific documentation relating to the sale of the property you're registering to bid on that will need to be read and accepted before you are able to bid.

Bidder's Administration Fee

In order to bid, you will be required to register a credit or debit card for the Administration fee (£1350 inc VAT). We use Stripe who provide a secure, online card registration facility, and they will attempt to place a 'hold on funds' on your account for the Administration Fee amount (often known as a 'payment shadow' as no money is taken at this stage). This means that the amount we're holding will affect the available amount you have to spend on your card, as the amount will be ring-fenced and you will not be able to spend it until the hold has been released. The Administration Fee amount will be clearly displayed when registering your card. On the fall of the gavel, the winning bidder's card will be automatically debited for the Administration Fee whilst all the unsuccessful bidder's cards will have their shadow payments released (this normally takes between 3-5 days depending on the card provider). Please note that the Bidder's Administration fee is in addition to the deposit and is not deducted from the completion monies.

Auctioneer Review

Once you have completed the bidder registration steps, Cooper and Tanner will review your registration to bid. We will contact you to obtain proof of funding to at least the bottom end of the guide price. You will be notified by email as soon as you have been approved to bid.

Due Diligence Before Bidding

In general terms, you are strongly advised to view the property and take professional advice as to its condition and suitability. You should also ensure that you thoroughly read and understand the legal pack and any other associated documentation available online and take proper legal advice accordingly. Finally, understand the contract you are entering into and the financial commitment that you will be liable for should you be the successful purchaser. Legal packs are available to download from the Cooper and Tanner website.

What is a Guide Price?

The guide price is an indication of the seller's current minimum price expectation at auction and the guide price, or range of guide prices, is given to assist prospective purchasers. The guide price can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in light of the interest shown during the marketing period and bidders will be notified of this change on our website and by the auctioneer prior to the lot being offered.

What is a Reserve Price?

The reserve price is the seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. It is usual, but not always the case that a provisional reserve is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing and the final reserve price will be agreed between the auctioneer and the seller prior to the auction sale. Whilst the reserve price is confidential it will usually be set within the quoted guide range and in any event will not exceed the highest quoted guide price.

Day of the Auction

In Room

The auctioneer will start the auction by making some general announcements and then commence with the first lot. Each lot will be introduced with a brief description before bids are invited. Once the bidding stops, the auctioneer will bring down the gavel and subject to the bidding exceeding the reserve price, declare the lot sold. At this point you and the seller are legally bound, by contract, to buy and sell that lot. You will then sign the necessary paperwork with the solicitor representing the vendor or a member of the Cooper and Tanner auctions department.

By Proxy

When registering to bid by proxy, you will be required submit a maximum bid amount. The auctioneer will then bid on your behalf to maintain your position as the highest bidder, up to your maximum bid amount.

NB: Your maximum bid is kept completely confidential – the amount is not disclosed to the vendor or any other bidder.

Online

The auction will be livestreamed via our website and you will be able to bid remotely. Bids are made via the 'Place Bid' button on the screen. Your bid will be shown to the auctioneer and you will be notified as to whether it has been accepted.

Legal Position When You have purchased a Lot by Auction

We offer property for sale by immediate, unconditional contract. This means that the fall of the gavel constitutes an exchange of contracts between the buyer and seller. Both parties are legally bound to complete the transaction – usually within 28 days following the close of the auction but this will be confirmed within the legal documentation. Successful bidders will be required to pay to the Cooper and Tanner Client Account the deposit of 10% of the purchase price within 24 hours following the close of the auction. The account details will be provided to the successful bidder on conclusion of the auction. Once funds are cleared, they will be transferred to the account of the solicitor acting for the seller. Please ensure that funds are in an account suitable to be able to make an Electronic Transfer from.

We'll Guide You Through To Completion

If you are the successful purchaser, we'll be in touch following the auction to discuss the next steps. The online system will take the Bidders Administration Fee amount from your registered credit or debit card (all underbidders will have their hold on funds released); the contract will then be signed by yourself or on your behalf, with copies being sent to both your solicitor and the seller's solicitor.
