The Property

An Edwardian two-bedroom mid terraced home conveniently located within a short stroll of Waitrose and the top of the high street. This period property boasts open fireplaces, original features, high ceilings and a lovely lawned rear garden. No Forward Chain.

A covered porch provides a useful area to come in from the rain before entering the welcoming hallway. As you enter the property, you are greeted with Edwardian character. On your right-hand side, you have the lounge which has a wonderful original fireplace and large bay window. The hallway extends past the stairs through to the dining room with a large sash window to the garden. Leading on to the kitchen, you will find an updated interior featuring, tiled flooring, high quality fixtures and fittings and built in appliances. Leading from the kitchen, there is a rear door to the garden and a through room (ideal as a study but could be used as an occasional bedroom) leading to the south facing summer room which has double doors to the lawned garden. There is also a ground floor cloakroom. Stairs rise to the first floor where you will find two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both offering plenty of natural light and storage space. The family bathroom suite completes the accommodation.

The Situation

The beautiful Georgian market town of Lymington, with its cosmopolitan shopping and picturesque harbour, is within easy reach of the property. Also within walking distance are the two large deep water marinas and sailing clubs for which the town has gained its status as a world renowned sailing resort, as well as an open-air seawater bath that was built in 1833. Lymington has a number of independent shops including some designer boutiques and is surrounded by the outstanding natural beauty of the New Forest National Park.
