Location

Sandy is a staple market town within central Bedfordshire, rich with life and variety. Local businesses thrive and there is a wealth of shops and amenities for the town's residents, including the Co-op supermarket in the town centre and Tesco superstore on New Road, as well as an extensive range of other shops in and around the town for daily essentials. There is also an off-license, multiple post offices, local bakery, pharmacy, library, plenty of restaurants, café's, takeaways, public houses, barbers, hairdressers and more. The town is also home to the church of St. Swithun's, which can be found on the high street. There are plenty of parks, and there is also a choice of primary and secondary schools as well as nurseries. Sandy is a popular settlement amongst commuters, the town has its very own train station, which provides regular journeys to London St Pancras in approximately forty-five minutes, with the A1(M) being within easy reach as well and fuel stations such as Texaco and Esso are just a short drive away. The town is proud to a strong and friendly community who proudly host local clubs and societies which are available to join. The 'Roundabout Club', for example, is a historic members club, which hosts a variety of evening social events, with tables also available for enjoying a game of pool or snooker with friends and other members.

Nature lovers are free to explore a generosity of walking trails surrounding the iconic 'Sand Hills', accessible via Cambridge Road, or along the river Ivel, whilst admiring uniquely beautiful landscapes and blissful countryside. Furthermore, the RSPB nature reserve is only a short distance away, on route to the neighbouring town of Potton, where you can experience much of the same at an unprecedented level. From Sandy, journey by car can take you to the main county town of Bedford in approximately twenty minutes, and the city of Cambridge in approximately thirty-five minutes.
