WHAT THE OWNERS SAY

Living at Mercury House has been a lovely experience as my first home. The apartment is the perfect size and very well laid out. The community in the building are friendly and supportive. The large roof terrace with seating has been particularly lovely to enjoy in the summer evenings. Mercury house is very close to the town centre and all its amenities, as well as being close to the train station making commuting super easy for someone like myself who works in central London.

ABOUT WELWYN GARDEN CITY

Welwyn Garden City bears the legacy of Sir Ebenezer Howard, who founded the town in the 1920s and developed it into a designated new town in 1948. Conceptualized as a harmonious blend of urban conveniences and rural tranquility, Welwyn Garden City offered residents an escape from the hustle and bustle of overcrowded cities to a haven of sunshine, leafy lanes, open countryside, and inviting cafes. The town's design emphasized creating a healthy and vibrant environment for its inhabitants. Today, Welwyn Garden City's town centre stands as a vibrant hub teeming with activity and features an array of shops to cater to various tastes and needs. The focal point is the Howard Shopping Centre, home to popular high street retailers like John Lewis, complemented by convenient supermarket options including Waitrose and Sainsburys on the town's outskirts. Additionally, a charming cinema venue offers the latest film releases for entertainment seekers.
