DESCRIPTION

This charming three-bedroom terraced family home is nestled in the highly sought-after village of Upper Bucklebury, known for its peaceful ambiance and excellent community amenities. Positioned in a prime residential area, the property enjoys close proximity to a local convenience store and offers easy access to stunning countryside walks, perfect for outdoor enthusiasts. The home is ideally located for commuters, with excellent transport links to Newbury, Reading, and London.

Inside, the property has been well-maintained and provides generous living space. The ground floor features a welcoming reception hallway leading to a spacious lounge/dining room, which benefits from natural light and patio doors opening onto the rear garden. The adjacent kitchen is fully fitted with a range of cabinets, ample work surfaces, space for free standing cooker and plumbing for a washing machine. Upstairs, you'll find two well-proportioned double bedrooms, a third single bedroom, and a modern shower room.

To the front, the property offers convenient off-road parking with a private driveway. The rear garden is a true highlight, featuring a paved patio perfect for alfresco dining, leading to a lush lawn surrounded by beautifully stocked shrub borders, providing year-round colour and privacy thanks to tall hedging. A garden shed offers additional storage. This delightful home presents an ideal opportunity for families looking to settle in a peaceful village with easy access to urban conveniences.

Directions

Local Information

In the late 20th century the village of Upper Bucklebury became the largest residential area situated in the parish of Bucklebury. It is located on a hill about 1.5 miles south-west of the extremely sought after village of Bucklebury, which lies at the western tip of Bucklebury Common. Upper Bucklebury has a general store, a public house, a modern style Church of England church and a primary school. In more recent times the village has become famous for being the former home of the Duchess of Cambridge, who still visits the village and her family home on regular occasions. Upper Bucklebury is in the North Wessex Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and is surrounded by beautiful countryside for walking and horse riding. Should you wish to visit a larger, local town both Newbury and Reading are an easy commute away and provide fantastic amenities for retail and leisure purposes including multiple shops, public houses, restaurants, gyms, health and sports clubs, theatres and cinemas. With regard to transport links, junction 13 of the M4 is approximately 6 miles from Bucklebury village and about 5 miles north-east of Newbury, giving access to both the A34 and A4; putting London, Bristol, Southampton, Oxford and Birmingham within easy reach. For trains, Newbury, Thatcham and Reading all have direct mainline trains into London Paddington and out to the South West.
