Guide Price £415,000

This semi-detached period cottage offers a perfect blend of traditional charm and modern conveniences. It boasts generous living spaces with two reception rooms, the sitting room features an impressive wood-burning stove, while the rear dining room features a block parquet floor and connects to a beautifully equipped kitchen providing both functionality and style. The basement offers additional versatile space, which could serve various purposes such as snug or a teenage retreat. Upstairs, there are two good-sized bedrooms, with the main bedroom spanning the width of the house. The landing and modern bathroom are well-appointed, maintaining the property's attractive character. The outdoor space is equally impressive, benefitting from a gravelled parking area which is accessed via a right of way allowing parking for up to three cars. The large garden includes a timber terrace and summerhouse providing a perfect place to entertain along with the garden bar. There is a separate office which is ideal for those working from home and a large store. The lawned garden adds to the overall charm, making this a delightful property with lots of potential for both living and working. It is also ideal for someone who appreciates period features and values both indoor and outdoor living spaces! EPC Rating: D
