DEFINED BOLD MODERNISM WITH GREAT COMFORT, LUXURY AND BEAUTY

The Packhorse Bridge

The beautiful packhorse bridge over Potton Brook was built in the 14th or 15th Century and is situated on an important trade route to wool towns such as Dunstable and Bedford.

It provides an ideal location for the annual Sutton duck race. A time honoured tradition involving young and old in a wonderful community event.

Sutton is a small hamlet of some 300 people, located in Bedfordshire near the towns of Potton, Sandy and Biggleswade.

It comprises a church, school, public house, golf club and a village hall.

All Saints Church

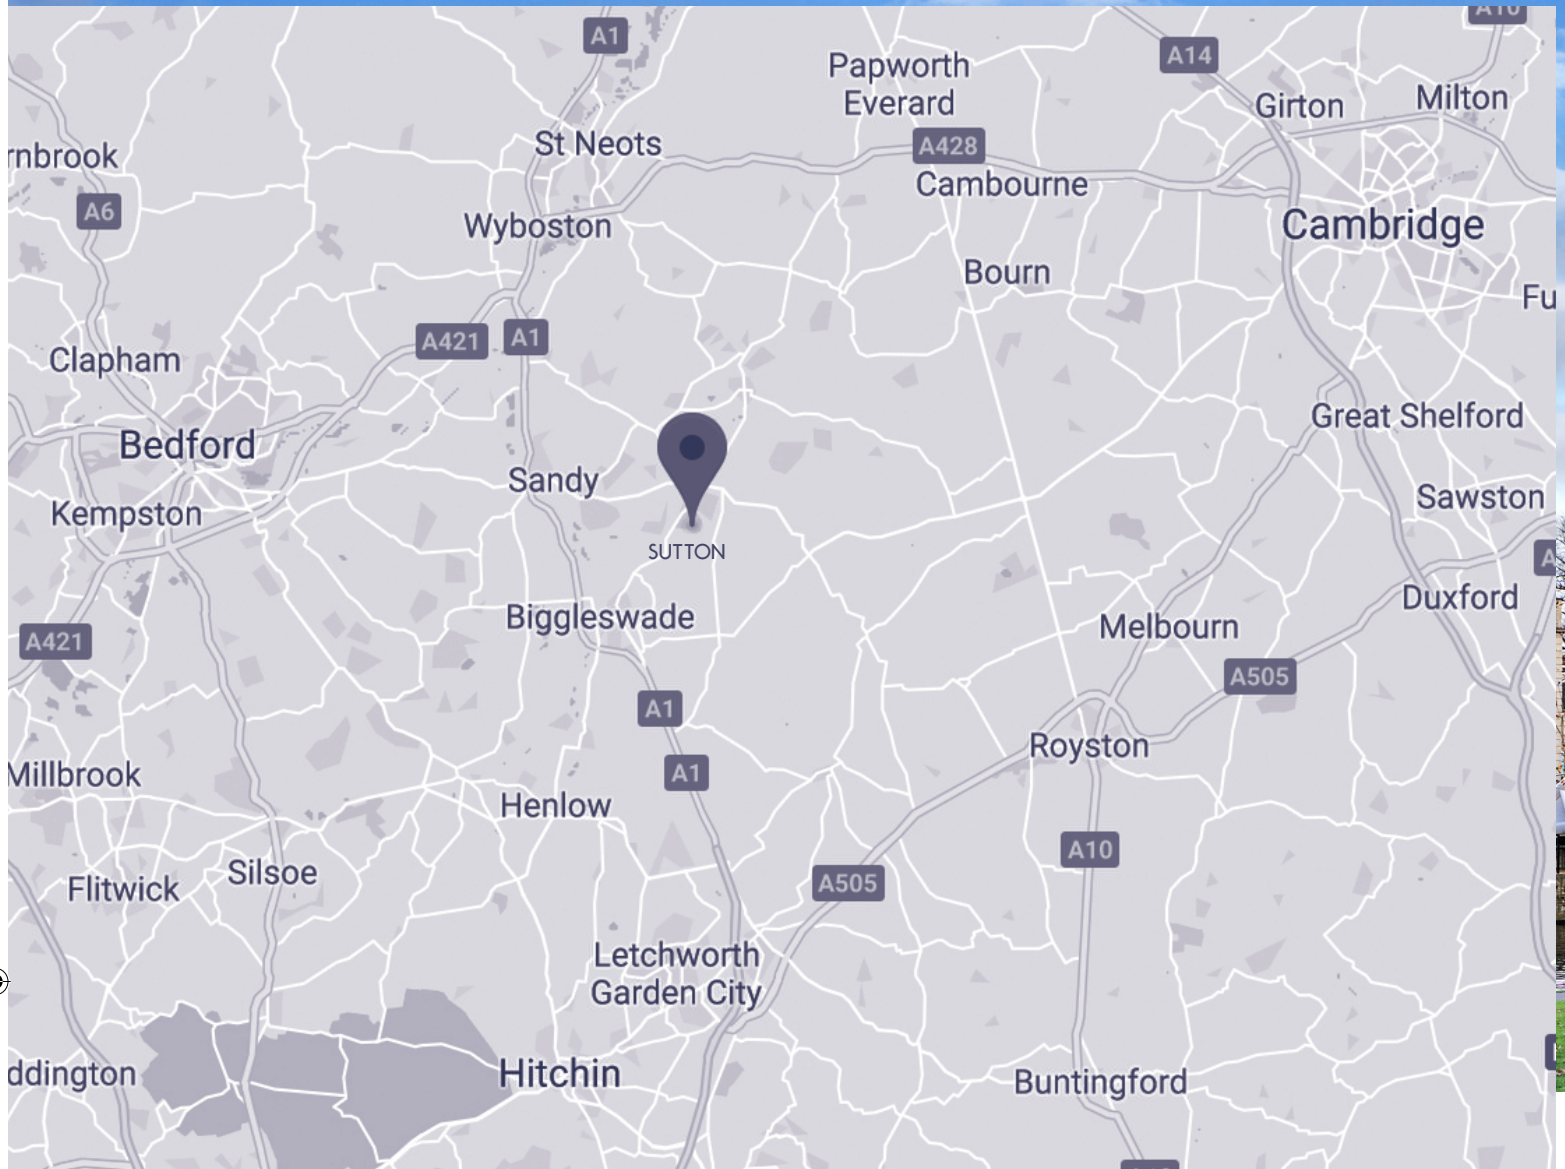

All Saints Church was built in the 12th Century and Sutton Castle soon after, circa 1220.

In the 14th Century, John of Gaunt, son of King Edward III, resided close to where the John O'Gaunt Golf Club is now.

The first written record of the village is its listing in the Domesday Book.

Spelt Sudtone and Suttone the name is thought to mean "south farm".

'We have recently purchased a new barn conversion from Resolution Homes, which is incredible. We absolutely love the design of the house, the space, the vaulted ceilings and the quality of the build throughout.'

Nick and the team have been brilliant. They have been extremely responsive and finished off our garden as we requested to a very high standard. Moving in was made easy and Resolution Homes ensured that any issue or snags were dealt with efficiently and fast.

They are creative property developers that push boundary's, utilising every space to create beautiful environments to live in.'
