Rising the stairs to the first floor, the master bedroom overlooks the front with an en-suite shower room and fitted cupboard. The second double bedroom is awash with light and houses a cupboard with a newly fitted combi boiler. The family bathroom suite, again newly fitted, has a contemporary white three piece suite and shower, including a locally hand made sink from the renowned local pottery at Vinegar Hill. Rising the stairs to the top floor there is a third double bedroom with fitted wardrobes. Overall, 37 New Street is a spacious 19th century town house in impeccable order with a host of charm and character a few moments from Lymington High Street.

Directions

Grounds & Gardens

Shingled front garden with low wall borders to front with mature hedging to side. From the kitchen, by-fold doors open to the rear garden with a patio area, raised flower beds, newly completed fencing and ample space for garden furniture. A constructed garage with double doors, light and power and storage above is accessible from the garden with rear access to the cul de sac behind with the benefit of additional off road parking for 2 cars in front of the garage.

Situation

The townhouse is within an easy short walk of all amenities including Lymington station, doctors surgeries and chemists, library, church and community centre. The beautiful Georgian market town of Lymington, with its cosmopolitan shopping and picturesque harbour has two large deep water marinas and sailing clubs for which the town has gained its status as a world renowned sailing resort, as well as an open-air seawater bath that was built in 1833. On Saturday, a market is held in the High Street, the origins of which probably date back to the 13th century. To the north are the New Forest villages of Brockenhurst and Lyndhurst and Junction 1 of the M27 which links to the M3 for access to London. There is also a branch line train link to Brockenhurst Railway Station (approx. 5.5 miles) which provides a half hourly service to London Waterloo with a journey time of approximately 90 minutes.

Lymington has a number of renowned restaurants and designer boutiques and is surrounded by the outstanding natural beauty of the New Forest National Park.
