A charming and neatly designed park home! When buying a park home you're not just buying a home, you're buying in to a way of life and the peaceful setting of Bakers Farm is the perfect setting to retire in. And this 1 bedroom park home with an additional study is an excellent example of the property available. Compact but thoughtfully designed, homely and well presented, you'll feel right at home. Surround by your private garden, there's plenty of space to potter. There's also residents and visitor parking available nearby. So if you're over 55 and looking for your next home then this home should be on your radar!
