The Property

A central entrance hallway floods the area with light and a wooden staircase leads to the first floor landing. The sitting room has a large square bay window to the front aspect and a wooden floor.

The large kitchen/dining room has glazed double doors to the rear garden and ample room for dining furniture. The kitchen area is separated by a large breakfast peninsular, ideal for casual dining. A range of appliances include an eye level fan oven and grill, separate six burner gas hob with extractor hood above, dishwasher and space for a large American style fridge freezer. The sink below the rear aspect window has a flexible mixer tap. A further reception room is currently utilised as a study with a door to a large laundry/utility cupboard.

There is a ground floor double bedroom served by the bathroom positioned opposite with a shower above the bath, WC, hand basin and heated towel rail.

The first floor landing is a generous area allowing ample space to create a reading or office area. The principal bedroom suite has a large walk-in wardrobe and en suite shower room with curved cubicle, WC, vanity unit incorporating the hand basin, storage cupboards heated towel rail and Velux window.

There are two further bedrooms to the first floor served by the family shower room with WC and vanity unit, storage cupboards, heated towel rail and Velux window.

Grounds & Gardens

To the front of the property there is off road parking for several cars and an integral single garage store. The rear garden is delightful being a great size for family life and with a good degree of privacy with mature boundaries and various colourful shrub and flower beds.

Mainly laid to lawn with a raised sun deck area near the house as well as a fire pit area next to the large wooden garden studio. This building is fully insulated with light and power and has a log burning stove. The current owners utilise it as a home working office.

Directions

From our office in Brockenhurst, turn left and take the first right into Sway Road and proceed to the end of this road, passing over the railway bridge, taking the right turn at the T-junction. Proceed along this road passing the Hare and Hounds pub on the left and then take the next right turn onto Church Lane. Take the second right into Westbeams Road and the house is on the right hand side after approximately 150 metres.

The Situation

The property is in a popular location in the heart of the village, being just a few minutes walk from the mainline railway station (London Waterloo approx. 90 minutes), general convenience stores, doctors surgery, public house and the highly regarded St Lukes Primary School.

There is a footpath at the end of Westbeams Road to the village and onto the open forest, accessed either from Adlams Lane, as well as at the end of Brighton road. The Georgian market town of Lymington, famed for its river, marinas, yacht clubs, boutique shops and coastline, is within an easy 4 mile drive over the forest. The neighbouring New Forest village of Brockenhurst, again with a mainline rail connection, offers further leisure, shopping and educational amenities, as well as a popular 18 hole championship golf course.
