Detached period home with a modern twist located in the capital Douglas with spacious open plan living, four bedrooms, three bathrooms, single garage and parking space, wrap around gardens.

£490,000 Freehold

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This detached period home has been beautifully renovated with a modern design twist, creating a stunning open plan living, dining, and entertaining space opening out onto the two flat lawned gardens, plus a wild flower oasis to the rear. Allowing for natural light to flood the rooms, providing views over the well kept gardens that surround the property. The terraced area and entertaining space offer the perfect setting for hosting friends or enjoying a peaceful evening outdoors. The walled and fenced boundary provides privacy, creating a secluded oasis in the heart of the neighborhood.

Inside, the property boasts three or four bedrooms depending on your family's requirements, and three additional modern bathrooms for added convenience, one downstairs and two upstairs. The spacious entrance hallway welcomes you into the property. The property is heated by a modern oil-fired central heating boiler, ensuring a warm and comfortable living space throughout the year. This home is the perfect blend of period charm and modern style, offering a luxurious and elegant living experience for its residents. A detached single garage and parking space providing ample storage and parking options.
