The Property

Located in the heart of the Historic Market Town of Romsey, this charming three-bedroom end of terrace home offers a wonderful blend of modern convenience and timeless appeal. Perfectly positioned, Romsey High Street is just a two-minute stroll from the front door.

A welcoming entrance hallway greets you on entry, where a glass-paned oak door allows natural light to flow through the home. The sitting/dining room is a generously sized and versatile space, ideal for modern family convenience and benefits from French doors overlooking the private rear garden, while a handy storage cupboard keeps household essentials neatly tucked away.

The kitchen can be accessed from both the hallway and the sitting/dining room, creating an easy, sociable flow throughout the ground floor. Thoughtfully designed and well-equipped, it features an electric hob and oven, fridge/freezer and a washer/dryer, along with ample wall and base units for storage. A cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the landing leads to the property's three bedrooms. The principal and second bedrooms are both well-proportioned doubles, while the third bedroom offers flexibility as a single room, nursery, or home office. A modern family bathroom serves all three rooms.

Outside

Externally, the rear garden (facing south) is designed for low-maintenance enjoyment, with a charming mix of patio, gravel, and mature shrubs. A rear gate provides convenient access to the garage and visitor parking area beyond.

Location

Romsey is a historic market town in Hampshire, situated on the River Test between Winchester and Southampton. The town offers a strong sense of community, a range of local amenities, and convenient transport links to nearby cities and the South Coast.

The town centre features a good mix of independent shops, cafés, restaurants, and essential services, along with a regular open-air market. Romsey Abbey, one of the finest examples of Norman architecture in southern England, provides a distinctive focal point and reflects the town's long history.

For commuters, Romsey railway station offers direct services to Southampton, Salisbury, and Portsmouth, while the M27 and M3 provide easy road connections to Winchester, London, and the wider region.

The surrounding Test Valley countryside is known for its scenic walking routes, fishing on the River Test, and proximity to the New Forest National Park. Families benefit from several well-regarded local schools and a variety of leisure and sporting facilities.
