SPENCERS
COASTAL

An impressive detached chalet residence set within private wraparound gardens, located in a highly sought-after area within walking distance of New Milton town centre, the railway station and the New Forest

The Property

Expansive entrance hallway with large porcelain tiled flooring, providing access to all ground floor accommodation, including understairs storage and a WC. Double casement doors open into both the kitchen/sitting room and dining room.

The kitchen/sitting room is a particular highlight and forms the hub of the home, enjoying a delightful double aspect with full-height windows and a large bay window overlooking the front gardens. Oak engineered flooring runs throughout.

The kitchen is fitted with a good range of white gloss wall, floor and drawer units with quality granite worksurfaces and under-unit lighting, together with integrated appliances including a double oven, microwave, induction hob and ceiling-mounted extractor.

Located off the kitchen is a useful utility room with additional storage and worksurfaces, plus space and plumbing for white goods.

The separate dining room, accessible from both the kitchen and the entrance hallway, offers generous space for a dining suite and features a double-sided electric fire. Bi-fold doors open into the sun room, which enjoys pleasant views over the surrounding gardens.

The ground floor also includes an excellent guest suite with a double aspect and a three-piece en-suite shower room, along with a separate snug and a study, both offering ample space for furniture.
