The Property

The accommodation centres around a superb, quadruple aspect, open plan kitchen/dining/family room featuring bamboo wooden floors with under floor heating throughout, exposed timber beams over a main steel frame, double height glazing extending the full width of the room and vaulted ceilings.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern units and appliances, granite work surfaces and an impressive island unit with a breakfast bar, whilst a pyramid style raised log burning fireplace set centrally within the room provides a wonderful focal point. This magnificent room forms the heart of the home with bi-fold doors opening to the back and side onto a decked sun terrace for outdoor dining and entertaining.

The double aspect principal bedroom set on the far side of the house benefits from a stunning en-suite bathroom, walk-in wardrobe and bi-fold doors to two sides opening onto the terrace. Further rooms to this level include a good size utility room opening into the car port area and a cloakroom.

The first floor accommodation centres around a wonderful mezzanine style sitting room overlooking the ground floor reception area with vaulted ceiling and glazed pyramid style skylight window designed to mirror the fireplace set immediately below.

Set off this room are three further bedrooms, one of which benefits from direct access onto a south facing balcony and an impressive family bathroom with double showers and an infinity waterfall bath.

This beautiful village in the centre of the New Forest has a range of all amenities and a mainline railway station (Waterloo 90 minutes).

The Local Area

It is Brockenhurst's mainline station (service into London Waterloo approximately 90 minutes) that turns the dream of a country idyll into reality for those working up in London and makes Brockenhurst village a property hot spot.

Brockenhurst is the largest village in the New Forest, a thriving and lively mix of community and cachet, quality and quirky with all the necessary essentials of a proper working village - butcher, bakery and greengrocer, full quota of cafes and tea houses, plus services such as doctor, dentist and bank. Work into the equation the unexpected and the glamorous: a wine and cheese cellar, premier golf course, luxurious spa and top restaurants such as The Pig (the first in the group of hip country house hotels) and Cambium (fine dining at Careys Manor). It all makes Brockenhurst a gem in the heart of the Forest.

Property ranges from Edwardian villas to thatched timber-framed cottages, and imaginative new builds to old Forest lodges. Many properties have access or views to open Forest and almost all are within walking distance of the station.
