The M6 can be easily accessed at Junction 40 or 41 and the delights of the Lake District National Park are also close at hand.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the heart of a charming, tree-lined street near Penrith town centre, this semi-detached, period property exudes timeless elegance and presents a prime canvas for those seeking a perfect blend of classic architecture and modern possibilities.

As you approach the entrance, you're greeted by a well-manicured front garden, enhancing the property's curb appeal. The surrounding trees not only provide a picturesque setting but also lend a sense of tranquility to the residence.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by a character-filled interior featuring high ceilings, intricate moldings, and large windows that allow natural light to flood the rooms. The living spaces boast a timeless charm, creating an inviting atmosphere.

The property stands proudly within a corner site, landscaped garden and the parking space and garage further enhance the appeal of this prime residence, making it a truly desirable home for those seeking a perfect blend of traditional and modern living.

One of the key highlights of this property is its potential for further expansion without compromising the current layout, with the possibility of basement and attic renovations subject to obtaining necessary planning permission.
