Description

It's all about the location and Holly Glen can offer this with the most amazing views over Nailsworth and beyond. Sat high above the town with good countryside walks on the doorstep, this well loved cottage has been extended and well maintained by the current owner with character features throughout. As soon as you walk in through the front door it's clear to see this home has it all! A lovely open plan kitchen with bi-fold doors leading to a great entertaining space. Modern coloured units with breakfast bar and all built in appliances, as well as a walk-in larder. This area flows through to a dining area and family room with cast iron wood burning stove, exposed stone walls and beams. There is also a separate sitting room with French doors to the front garden. A utility room and a contemporary wet room can be found at the back of the cottage. A painted staircase leads up from the sitting room to the first floor landing with good natural light and exposed stone. There are three bedrooms all benefiting from amazing views. The family bathroom is a good size and comprises of bath with shower over, WC and pedestrian wash hand basin. Viewing of Holly Glen is highly recommended.

Outside

It's very rare to find good parking with a Cotswold stone cottage but Holly Glen can offer this too with a brick paved area that can comfortably sit four vehicles. The principal garden wraps itself around the cottage with a great entertaining space off the kitchen ideal for barbecues, with well stocked flower beds and an amazing view over town and countryside. To the front there is log store and steps that lead up to a terraced garden with lawns, ornamental trees and a level area at the top that backs onto open fields. The space here is ideal for children's play equipment.

Location

Nailsworth is home to many independent businesses, selling everything from artisan bread, meat and fish to stationery, fashion and handmade jewellery. Nestling at the bottom of steep wooded hills, Nailsworth is now an attractive and vibrant shopping destination, with a large selection of interesting speciality shops and cafes, including the famous Williams Food Hall and Hobbs House Bakery. It is a quirky and friendly town, with a good selection of restaurants, as well as three supermarkets, a regular farmers' market and a 'green' football club. Nailsworth is well positioned for both town and country. Climb the steep 'W' hill out of town and you find yourself on acres of stunning National Trust common land, home to a prestigious golf course. The town is also on the doorstep of beautiful Woodchester Park, with miles of woodland walks and secluded lakes. Yet just four miles away is Stroud, with more comprehensive shopping, educational and leisure facilities, connected by bus services. Junctions of the M4 and M5 motorways are within easy reach and railway stations at Stroud (4 miles) and Kemble (10 miles) provide main line services to Gloucester, Swindon and London Paddington.

Directions
