Grounds & Gardens

The property is accessed via two large wooden gates into a generous parking courtyard with access to carport and garaging with office space above. The front gardens are well screened with mature hedges and some attractive specimen trees.

The rear gardens are a lovely feature with lawns edged with post and rail fencing. The majority of the garden is laid to lawn with a terraced space, perfect for catching the afternoon and evening sun and enjoy the pleasant view. A picket gate leads into a separate part of the garden with many features, such as a gardening corner with raised beds, a beautifully built bar/entertaining outbuilding and a large detached office/workroom.

The Situation

The property occupies a substantial plot which is located within the beautiful New Forest National Park, with direct access onto the open forest - offering thousands of acres of natural heath and woodland, ideal for riding, walking and cycling. The popular market town of Ringwood is approximately 8 miles away, providing an excellent range of high street and independent shops, boutiques, cafes and restaurants as well as supermarkets, two leisure centres and excellent state and private schooling. The easily accessible A31 offers routes to the large coastal towns of Bournemouth and Christchurch (approximately 12 miles south via the A338), and Southampton (approximately 18 miles east via the M27). London is approximately 1.5 - 2 hours drive via the M3 heading north east.

Directions

From Ringwood, join the A338 heading North towards Fordingbridge. After approximately 6 miles, take the exit for Fordingbridge. At the T-junction turn right signposted to Godshill. Continue on for about two miles, passing Sandy Balls park on your left, and the property can be found on your right hand side before the Fighting Cocks pub and cattle grid.
