What a fabulous surprise we have here, an absolute Tardis of a bungalow! Having a deceptive pedestrian front onto Cannock Road but with its main gated vehicular access off Grange Avenue, this immaculately presented the bedroom detached bungalow is a feast for the eyes. Occupying a prime corner plot position and undergoing several extensions over the years this stunning three bedroom bungalow offers a wealth of accommodation while still offering the convenience of being within excellent access to good local amenities, transport links and schools. Offering secure gated parking to the rear for multiple vehicles or even campervans, while still having a good size lawned garden to the front this property would suite a range of potential purchasers. Internally the property boasts a 4.8m x 6.3m dining kitchen along side two further very good size reception rooms, three well appointed double bedrooms with the main also offering an ensuite shower room as well as a principle shower room along with the wonderful addition of the tandem double garage stretching a whopping 11m x 3.4m. An early internal viewing is considered essential to fully appreciate the accommodation on offer.
