PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Location, Location, Location!

This truly immaculate detached bungalow combines all three in abundance.

Tucked away towards the end of the highly sought-after Purn Way, within the charming and historic heart of 'old' Bleadon village, the property enjoys a wonderfully secluded and private position. Occupying a generous south-facing plot, it benefits from beautifully presented, low-maintenance level gardens, thoughtfully arranged to include paved and decked patio areas, areas of lawn, ample driveway parking, and a detached garage.

The current owners have taken great care to enhance and modernise the property during their time here. Recent improvements include the installation of new double-glazed windows, updated radiators, crisp white painted walls and attractive flooring throughout.

Externally, our vendors have created a stunning landscaped southerly garden that perfectly complements the home, providing a delightful space for both relaxation and entertaining. Internally, the accommodation is light, spacious and versatile, with two generously sized double bedrooms offering flexibility for a variety of lifestyles. The layout also presents excellent potential for extension (subject to the necessary planning permissions), allowing future owners to further tailor the home to their needs.

The detached single garage, located to the side of the bungalow, together with the broad driveway to the front, provides excellent parking facilities.

The real jewel of this property, however, is the setting itself. The south-facing gardens are predominantly laid to lawn, interspersed with attractive patio and decked areas, all enjoying a high degree of privacy. This unique and tranquil haven offers peace and quiet rarely found in such a convenient village location.

Opportunities to acquire homes in such a private and desirable position are few and far between. Offered with no onward chain complications (by negotiation) this exceptional bungalow is expected to generate significant interest, and we strongly recommend an early viewing to fully appreciate the outstanding location, generous plot and the flexible accommodation it provides.
