

Box Cottage

Backwell Common
Backwell

BS48 3AE

This outstanding cottage dates back to the 1750's and has been thoroughly refurbished in recent years. Occupying an idyllic spot on Backwell Common, which offers tranquillity without isolation, this spacious family home comprises an seamless blend of character and original features with the benefits of modern living. Sitting on generous plot with far reaching views over the surrounding countryside, Box Cottage is perfectly place for access to highly regarded local schools, the mainline train station, Festival Way Cycle Path and numerous country walks. This deceptively spacious and well presented home sits in large gardens which offer privacy and far reaching views. Furthermore, there is a secure block built outbuilding under a tiled roof, which offers ample storage space or the potential to convert to an annex, subject to relevant planning permissions and a Games Room.
