SPECIALISTS IN PROPERTY

29 Manor Road, Harrow, Greater London. HA1 2PF.

£850,000 Freehold

Hilton King and Locke are absolutely delighted to bring to the market this beautifully presented, four bedroom, semi-detached house with an attached garage and large driveway. This property is situated in the town of Harrow, providing fantastic motorway links leaving you only 30 minutes commute journey via train, into London.

Upon entering the property, you are met with a complimentary sized porch for shoes and belongings before making your way inside. As you step into the property you will be greeted with a light, open and airy hallway with polished surface tiles and admiring the remarkable high ceilings throughout the entirety of the property. As you follow through the doors on the left you will be met with a large living room area that is open plan with the dining room with astoundingly large windows to allow natural daylight throughout all hours of the day. The door to the rear of the dining area, will lead you into the large conservatory with plenty of space to encourage another living room space or games room. As you walk back through the hallway, you will see the kitchen ahead of you providing a rangemaster gas cooker with an overhead extractor hood and detachable tap dispenser. Alongside the kitchen you are faced with a door to the utility room with a downstairs bathroom accompanied with a wet room shower. The kitchen provides you with a door leading to the beautiful decking area in the rear, south facing garden, great for warm summer afternoons. As you descend from the decking area, you will see a large garden with another outbuilding to the rear of the property which is fantastic for ample storage space.

As you ascend to the first floor, you will see three large sized bedrooms, the big master bedroom accompanied by built in storage wardrobe space, leaving you mass amounts of room. You have a large family bathroom with a tremendous bathtub and overhead shower. Moving onto the second
