C/2373/NT

One of the go to places for Carmarthen Nightlife. A rare opportunity arises with large bar area with dance floor off. Galleried landing, side sitting area with vaulted ceilings and wooden floors giving the venue its individual charm and character. The present owner has created a second bar area for a more intimate experience while out enjoying the evening and nightlife atmosphere. The Dog & Piano offers the versatility to change the internal layout to take it back to its original larger venue if required. 400 square meters of useable floor space. The first floor has a kitchen area and store room with some accommodation if so required. The property also has a fully fitted fire alarm and full cctv system and the business comes with a late license for Food and drinks service. Carmarthen offers a great safe nightlife with the main nightclub being around the corner in Lammas Street.
