The Property

Built in 2011 and extensively enhanced during the current tenure, this superbly proportioned brick & flint home offers an exceptional blend of traditional charm and contemporary style. Perfectly positioned within a flat walk of village amenities, the property enjoys open views over the playing grounds and benefits from direct gated access to them.

Ground Floor

The spacious entrance hall immediately sets the tone, leading into the beautifully presented sitting room, complete with an electric feature fireplace and mantel, an ideal snug to retreat into. The impressive open-plan kitchen/dining room/family room has been newly fitted with quartz work surfaces, high-quality fittings, and generous storage, creating a bright and social room, convenient for both everyday living and entertaining. A versatile study provides an ideal space for home working or quiet pursuits, while a conveniently positioned cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

First Floor

The principal bedroom includes a brand-new en-suite shower room, while three further double bedrooms are served by a stylish family bathroom. The landing provides a sense of light and space throughout the first floor. The principal bedroom and bedroom four overlook the playing views, providing a fantastic viewpoint for the Summer Cricket season.

Outside

Located to the fore, the driveway provides ample parking for four to five vehicles and leads to a 20' x 10'5" single garage. The rear garden has been landscaped and features a patio terrace for outdoor seating. A gate at the end of the garden opens directly onto the playing grounds, offering a rare and enviable connection to further open space.

The Situation

The charming village of King's Somborne is set on the edge of the River Test valley and offers a welcoming community with everyday amenities, including a Post Office and store, primary school, church, and public house. A network of scenic footpaths and bridleways weaves through the surrounding countryside, providing excellent opportunities for walking and riding. Just five minutes away by car, the picturesque town of Stockbridge boasts an array of independent shops, cafes, and restaurants.

The historic market town of Romsey lies around seven miles to the south, while the cathedral cities of Winchester and Salisbury are approximately 10 and 18 miles away respectively, each offering extensive shopping, dining, and educational facilities. Excellent road connections via the M3 and A303 give easy access to London, the West Country, and the South Coast, while nearby rail services provide direct links to London Waterloo.
