This delightfully light and spacious bungalow is less than 10 years old and offers immaculately presented accommodation throughout.

The entrance hall leads to a dual aspect lounge at the front of the property with large picture window and patio doors out to the garden at the side.

At the rear of the property there is a modern kitchen/dining room with patio doors leading into the garden. The kitchen is fitted with a range of contemporary styled wall and base units with integrated electric hob, electric oven, microwave and dishwasher.

There are two bedrooms, with the large main bedroom benefiting from dual aspect windows.

The shower comprises of a shower cubicle, pedestal wash basin, low level wc and heated towel rail.

Throughout the bungalow has the advantage of gas central heating and upvc windows and doors. It also benefits from low maintenance upvc gutters, downpipes and soffits.

Outside the gated garden is delightfully private, laid mainly to lawn with patio area and paved kitchen garden.

At the front of the property there is a block paved driveway providing ample parking.

Newtown is popular for its close proximity to both primary and senior school, convenience shop and within easy walking distance of open countryside.

Tewkesbury has excellent motorway and rail links making it an ideal central location for accessing many of the larger towns and cities.
