

Highfield Road, Winchmore Hill, London N21

£530,000

A beautiful, light filled and well planned two storey, two bedroom detached house set back from the road in a sought after backwater close to green open spaces, excellent schools, transport links and an array of local shops, bars and restaurants. The property has a lovely, south facing decked garden and is offered chain free and in excellent decorative condition with open plan living space and well proportioned accommodation.

