Description

Set on the second floor of the attractive Grade II listed Byrlton House, this beautifully presented one-bedroom flat offers charm, character, and truly outstanding views. Tucked into the eaves, the home features striking exposed beams that frame an impressive sitting room, an inviting space filled with light and historic appeal. The apartment includes a sleek, modern kitchen and a well-proportioned bedroom with a built-in wardrobe.

To the rear, a contemporary shower room, with brand new shower, provides a smart and practical finish. Positioned at the top of the Trinity Conservation Area, the property enjoys an elevated outlook over the town and towards the rolling countryside beyond, with the iconic Westbury White Horse directly in view from the front-facing rooms, an exceptional panorama rarely matched. Neutrally re-decorated throughout, chain free, and ready to move into, this charming home is ideal for buyers seeking character, convenience, and captivating scenery in a unique period setting.

The apartment also benefits from an allocated parking space.
