50% shared ownership

Bill Tandy and Company are delighted to offer for sale this rare chance to purchase an affordable shared ownership property located in the heart of the cathedral city centre of Lichfield, which provides recently improved and modernised accommodation. This second floor apartment is within walking distance of the city centre where an array of amenities can be found including nearby Tesco and Aldi supermarkets and a range of shops, restaurants and bars. For commuting the property is superbly positioned being within walking distance of both bus and Lichfield City train stations, with Lichfield Trent Valley station providing access to London Euston. This modern second floor apartment comprises hall, lounge, modern kitchen, two bedrooms and recently upgraded bathroom. Outside the property is accessed via a small access road with a private driveway which leads to the residents parking and the allocated parking space for the apartment. We understand there is the potential to purchase the further 50% ownership available upon request to the Housing Association. Internal viewings are highly recommended to appreciate this rare opportunity.
