LOCATION

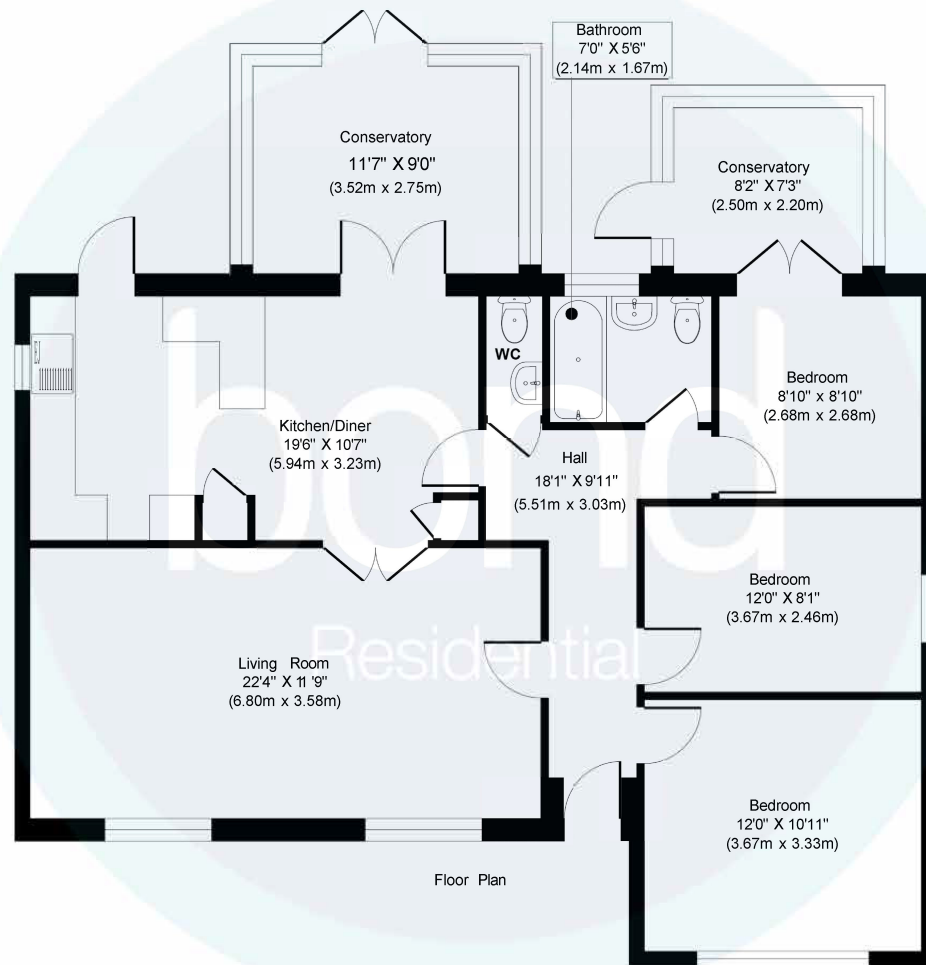

Bicknacre is a popular village located on the edge of Danbury about 5 miles southeast of the city of Chelmsford. The village has a long history dating back several centuries and is mentioned in the Domesday Book of 1086, where it is recorded as "Bichnacha." Over the years, the village has evolved from a primarily agricultural community to a more residential area. Bicknacre has a small range of shops, a primary school, a village hall, and a pub and is surrounded by beautiful countryside, as well as offering lots of opportunities for outdoor activities such as walking, cycling, and horse riding. The nearby villages of Woodham Ferrers and Danbury provide additional amenities and attractions in addition to the larger towns like Maldon and South Woodham Ferrers and cities like Chelmsford.
