

Oakwood Estates is thrilled to bring to the market this bright end-of-terrace property featuring four bedrooms, modern kitchen dinner, downstairs W.C., and a spacious reception room. The home boasts a generous front garden that could be a driveway includes the convenience of a garage located off the rear garden.

Step into a spacious entrance hall with a convenient downstairs W.C. setting the tone for the space and comfort this home offers. To the left, you'll find a modern, well-equipped kitchen featuring ample cupboard storage, space for all white goods, and room for a dining table and chairs—perfect for family meals or entertaining. A side door provides easy access to the outside, adding to the practicality of this stylish and functional space.

The living room features a patio door and rear window that fill the space with natural light and provide easy access to the garden. The laminate flooring runs seamlessly throughout the ground floor, creating a modern, cohesive look that's both stylish and low-maintenance.

Upstairs, the property offers four bright and well-proportioned bedrooms, all carpeted for comfort, along with a modern family bathroom. There are also three built-in storage cupboards, providing plenty of space to keep everything neatly organised.

This property would make an ideal family home, offering space, comfort, and practicality throughout. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that it has to offer.
