The Property

An oak and part glazed front door with covered porch canopy leads to an entrance vestibule with a glazed door leading through to the main entrance hall and study area.

Set off the hall is a superb open plan space with herringbone wood effect floor which links through from the dining room to the kitchen/breakfast area with doors leading out onto the pretty rear garden and terrace.

The kitchen area has a full range of low and high level units in cream with solid timber worktops over and a range of built in Neff appliances and space for a fridge/freezer.

From the dining area a door leads into a spacious double aspect sitting room with a feature woodburner set centrally with attractive tiled surround and French doors leading to the rear terrace and garden.

Completing the downstairs accommodation is a utility/cloak room with low level W.C, fitted units, space and plumbing for domestic appliances. A further door leads through to the integral garage with power and light.

An oak staircase leads to the first floor landing which has a large airing cupboard with doors to the double aspect principal bedroom, two double bedrooms and a single bedroom, one of which has built in wardrobes and family bathroom.

Grounds and Gardens

From the cul-de-sac a driveway leads to the front of the property providing ample off-road parking and access to the garage, surrounded by well-manicured areas of lawn and mature hedges and shrubs. The pretty rear garden is landscaped and predominantly laid to lawn with a mixture of lapwood fencing and hedging to the boundaries providing privacy and seclusion.

A paved pathway leads around one side of the lawn area to the rear of the garden giving access to a gate which leads out to the parkland area behind.

A large terrace is set across the rear of the property providing for entertaining and outdoor dining, complemented by an outdoor kitchen area. The garden boundaries are planted with a selection of mature shrubs and plants.

Directions

From our office in Brockenhurst turn right and proceed up Brookley Road and take the first right into Sway Road. Continue to the end of the Sway Road and turn right. Continue for approximately two miles before taking the fifth turning on the right into Station Road. Continue along Station Road for approximately one mile and turn right into Middle Road and Stanford Rise can be found after a short distance on the left hand side. The property can be found on the left hand side in this quiet cul-de-sac.

Situation

The property is situated in a convenient central location in the village, being walking distance from the mainline railway station, post office/newsagents, general store, a doctors' surgery and St Lukes Primary School. The open forest can be accessed just north of the property at Seththorns. The Georgian market town of Lymington, renowned for its river, marinas, yacht clubs and High Street, is within an easy 4 mile drive over the forest.
