Description

A chalet style, 3 bedroom family house, ideally situated on this generous corner plot in the popular Bafford development, within walking distance to the 'Outstanding' Balcarras school and other excellent amenities. This much loved home offers scope/potential for further modernisation/improvements. On the ground floor, the accommodation includes an entrance porch, welcoming reception hallway, spacious c. 21' living/dining room with dual windows overlooking the rear garden, and a separate family/dining room (formerly the integral garage) providing a versatile room. The kitchen/breakfast room has a full range of storage units, built-in oven and gas hob, breakfast bar, and a side pedestrian door leading to the inner passageway with access to the 'gardeners toilet' (behind the garage). On the first floor, there are 3 good size bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a separate toilet. Outside, the attractive block paved driveway provides ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles and leads to the garage with an electronically operated door. The enclosed rear garden has a raised lawn edged by stone borders for planting and a feature wishing well, wooden garden shed, plus an additional hardstanding area. The property is warmed by gas central heating and is double glazed throughout. An internal viewing is highly recommended.
