Location

Aldham, Essex

Aldham is a postcard-perfect village surrounded by rolling hills and lush, green meadows that stretch as far as the eye can see. The landscape is painted with a palette of vibrant colours throughout the seasons, from the golden fields of wheat in summer to the picturesque frost-kissed scenery in winter.

It is also within very easy access of Marks Tey Train Station, offering links to London Liverpool Street Station within the hour and therefore ideal for working professionals. It is also well-connected to Colchester, a historic city with an array of excellent primary and secondary educational choices, both private and comprehensive. A five minute car journey provides access to Tollgate Retail Park, home to an array of useful shops, amenities and facilities.
