About the Property

On entering the property there is an open hallway with a storage cupboard and doors lead from the hallway to all principal rooms. The living/dining room is situated towards the front of the property and there are sliding doors opening to a private use patio area. The dining area leads from the main living area, and this proves perfect for formal dining or entertaining.

The kitchen is comprehensively fitted with a range of modern units and there is space for a breakfast table. A new boiler has also recently been installed.

The principal bedroom has built-in wardrobes and benefits from a private ensuite shower room. The second bedroom is a comfortable double and is serviced by the main bathroom.

The gardens are well maintained and are mainly laid to lawn with numerous flower and shrub borders. The private patio area is covered and overlooks the communal gardens. A garage with an electric up-and-over door is allocated to the apartment. The building also has 24 hour CCTV.
