Description

Cooper and Tanner are delighted to bring to the market this exciting and unique detached converted period residence that was once a former apple store and set in grounds approaching one acre. This enchanting home has been extended and remodelled to provide a comfortable and tucked away place to live.

The property is accessed via a private gated gravel driveway. Internally you will be greeted with a vast array of features including a galleried staircase and ceiling beams. A particular feature is the balcony from the bedroom from which views over the grounds can be enjoyed. At the rear is a pleasing conservatory / garden room with access to the main patio area. Within the grounds is a large detached triple barn style garage with a staircase giving access to a charming one bedroom annexe that has a kitchen area and shower room. This annexe could be used for a possible rental / Airbnb or for extra family / guest accommodation.

The accommodation of the main coach house in brief comprises an entrance vestibule, hallway / utility, galleried staircase, kitchen, dining room, lounge / conservatory, WC, first floor bedroom, balcony, dressing area, bathroom. As sole selling agents we strongly urge the importance to view this amazing place to fully appreciate the wealth of attributes.

Outside, a gravel and gated driveway gives access to the substantial grounds and down to the triple garage and annexe. Further outbuildings include a stable block, shed and Tractor / Tool storage shed. The vastly tended level grounds incorporate generous lawn areas, vegetable plots and grazing sections for animals if required. The grounds are mainly screened by stone and brick walling.

Viewing comes highly recommended to realise the full charm of this home.
