Summary

Set on a quiet cul-de-sac, this main-door double-upper villa is an exceptional four-bedroom residence which resides on the first and second floors of a traditional building. It offers a sought-after coastal lifestyle in the village of Pittenweem, and enjoys the benefits of traditional architecture, alongside sympathetically styled modern interiors that are finished to impeccable standards. The family home further boasts large rooms with high ceilings, including two reception areas, and it has fantastic built-in storage and a communal rear garden.

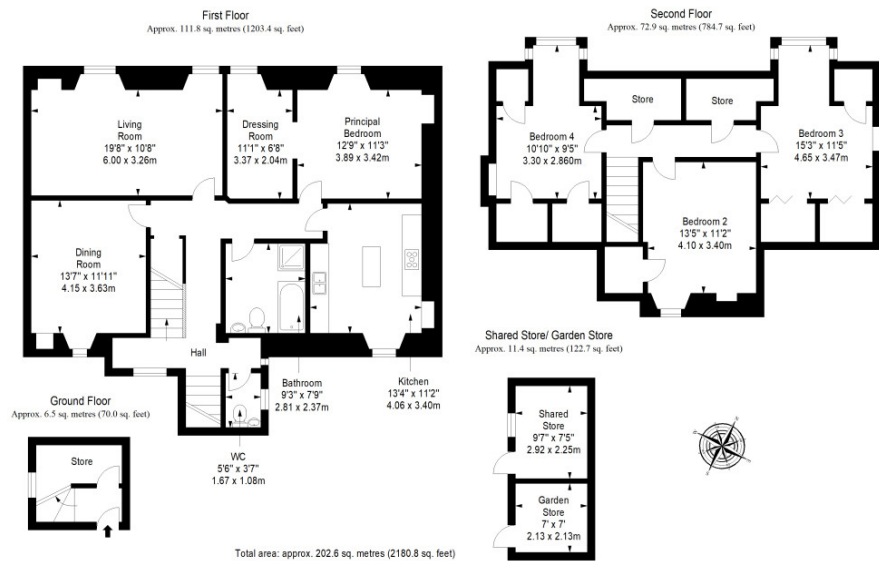

Extras: all fitted floor and window coverings, and gas range cooker to be included.
