Ground Floor

Entering via the front door takes you into the spacious hallway featuring an elegant winder staircase to the first-floor accommodation and understairs storage cupboard. There are doors leading off to the study, sitting room, kitchen/diner and cloakroom. The study room is an intimate space which radiates from the sunlight, whilst the sitting room is a lengthy area, perfectly aligned with the extensive views of the gardens and open fields, and dual aspect window positions flood the room with natural light. The sitting room also features a delightful open fireplace, sliding patio doors for seamless access to the rear garden, and stylish sliding French doors that take you directly into the dining room. The sliding French doors are highly practical, and grant the ability to open up the two adjoining spaces or close them off for added privacy. From the formal dining room is a door to the kitchen/diner. This room features plenty of matching base and eye level units, shelving and complimentary worktop over, and comprises a 'Britannia' range oven, integral undercounter fridge, one and a half bowl stainless steel sink unit with dual-lever tap, as well as space and plumbing for a dishwasher. There is a window above the sink which also looks out onto the garden, so you can even experience joy washing the dishes! The utility room leads straight off from the kitchen/diner, and is a highly functional space that contains matching base units with complimentary worktop, stainless steel sink unit with mixer tap, space and plumbing for washing machine and a door which provides internal access to the double garage. The conservatory, which can be accessed either externally, or internally from the kitchen/diner, is a lovely addition, and is brick based with UPVC double glazing and power. The double garage is rather substantial, and features light & power, twin roller doors and a door to the rear garden.

First Floor

Beams of natural light shimmer through the window as you ascend the winder staircase to the first-floor landing. On the first floor, there is a three-piece family bathroom and five generously sized double bedrooms, all of which feature built-in wardrobes / integrated storage cupboards. The principal bedroom is long and sunlit from the presence of dual aspect windows, and features its own private en-suite with walk-in shower, as well as a door to the balcony, where you can set your eyes upon the vast rear garden and stunning open field vistas that stretch far beyond. The balcony is large enough to establish seating arrangements and flower planters. Wake up to blissful mornings as the sunshine seeps gently through the curtains, breathe in the fresh air and the sweet scent of blossoming flowers as you make your way out onto the balcony whilst admiring captivating views.

Gardens & Grounds

Hazeldene is established on a 1-acre plot of land and is nestled in a hilltop position overlooking extensive open field vistas that stretch as far as the eye can see. Both the front and rear gardens are vast, beautifully kept, and laid to lawn, whilst exhibiting effortless beauty with established mature trees and blossoming wildflowers. The rear garden is formed in an 'L' shape and contains a patio section with raised flower borders around the edges, multiple sheds, greenhouse and a genuine wishing well. There is gated access on both sides of the property, and the front features more established green land and shingle/block paved driveway, that provides off-road parking for an ample number of vehicles. The front garden looks onto the magnificent St Margaret's Church and presents majestic curb-side appeal from a solid brick wall enclosure and towering cypress tree. Hazeldene's highly substantial grounds provide excellent potential for equestrian facilities and activities.

Location

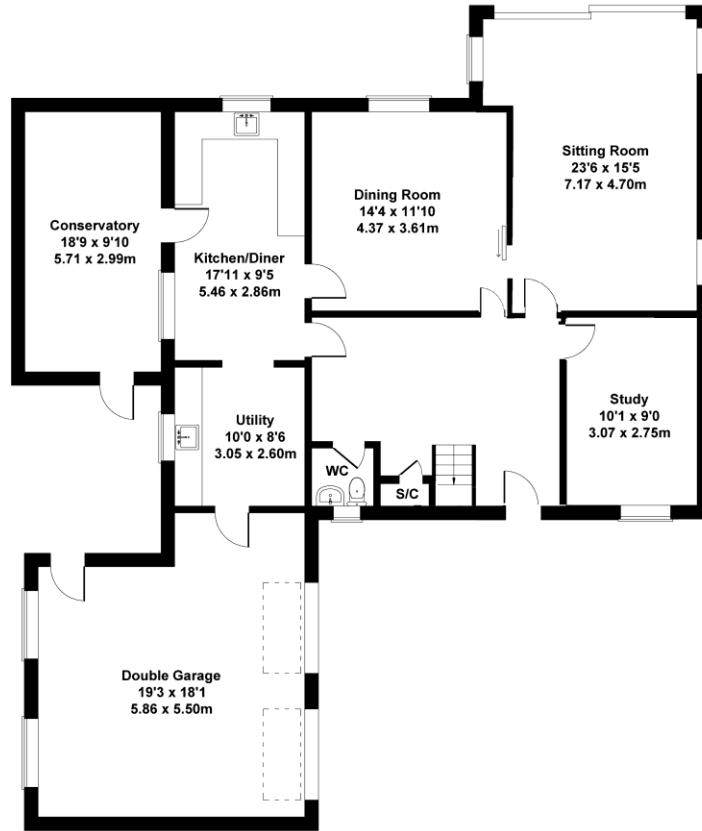

Abbotsley is a picturesque village within the Huntingdonshire district, adored by its residents for its tranquil countryside and historical structures. Abbotsley is a wonderful village that frames the idyllic country lifestyle that many dream of having, and is home to the astounding St Margaret's Church, The Eight Bells public house, beautiful village green and the village hall, which was formerly the old village school, and to this day holds village meetings and private functions. The village hall also arranges an annual feast week and scarecrow festival as a fundraising event for the maintenance of the village hall, and hosts a range of activities/classes such as Mums & Tots, afternoon coffee chats, Pilates, yoga sessions and art club, all in the spirit of keeping the community strong. The village makes for a practical settlement for commuters, with proximity to the major road links such as the A1, A14 and A428. It is also 14 miles from the city of Cambridge, and only 3 miles from St Neots town, which offers a wealth of shops, eateries, amenities and much more, including the St Neots Railway Station, which provides regular journeys to London Kings Cross and Gatwick.
