The Business

Property

The property is accessed via a main door from Argyll Street, with steps and a short ramp allowing access to the slightly elevated retail space. The end-of-terrace building has large windows overlooking both Argyll and Moir Street, and the shop has been well maintained. Accessed from the rear of the shop is a consultation/private meeting room. At the rear of the property, there is a door that opens to a rear hall, providing access to the consultation room, staff area with a kitchenette, and male and female toilets. A key feature is the old bank safe/vault, which is in perfect working order.

External

The shop is situated within a traditional 1800's end-terraced property, with the retail frontage facing the street. The property has no external space.
