This end-terrace character-filled home is conveniently located close to shops and beautiful countryside walks. It is a short level walk to Kingswood Primary School and the prestigious Katharine Lady Berkley's Secondary School. From the front, the home opens into a handy entranceway, which continues into the comfortable lounge/diner. A sun-soaked front-facing window bathes the room in natural light, while the working wood burner takes the chill out of colder evenings. To the rear, a long kitchen features plenty of base and wall units, ideal for cooking your latest recipes, adorned by two UPVC windows and a separate door onto the rear courtyard garden. Continuing around it leads to a generous downstairs WC with the potential to be transformed into a utility space. An additional versatile room completes this floor, which could serve as an extra bedroom, office space, or children's den with a loft space above for storage. The first floor accommodates the second bedroom, featuring two built-in storage cupboards and a period fireplace and the family bathroom with a shower overhead of the bath. A further staircase leads to the principal bedroom, complete with a window overlooking the rear of the home. There is a pretty courtyard garden to the rear of the property, mainly laid with astroturf, and it accommodates a generous shed at the very rear. Complete with parking, this home is perfect for those looking for cosy cottage comfort, while remaining in the heart of a beautiful village.
