The Property

This beautiful family home offers an elegant façade with a storm porch and generous driveway parking to the front and garaging to the side of the property.

A solid wood front door with glazed inserts opens into the entrance hallway with a door leading to the principle living accommodation and a stairwell ascending to the first floor.

The beautifully appointed, double aspect family room which opens into the snug area features wood flooring and a recessed wood burning stove set on a slate hearth with wood mantel and built-in alcove shelving.

The double aspect dining room with stripped wood floors, period cast iron fireplace with wood surround mantel and picture rail benefits from french doors leading out to the rear garden.

The kitchen features a range of fitted units, woodblock work surfaces with inset ceramic sink, a gas Aga, integrated dishwasher and space for a fridge freezer and travertine flooring. Double doors lead through to the conservatory with a door opening out onto the rear terrace and garden.

The rear lobby, with door to the side return, leads into the utility room with space and plumbing for the washing machine, which in turn leads onto the shower room with shower cubicle, hand basin and W/C.

Directions

Leave Brockenhurst heading north towards Lyndhurst on the A337. After approximately 3 miles bear left at Goose Green T junction onto Chapel Lane/A35 and proceed to the end of the lane. Turn left onto Bournemouth Road/A35 and the property can be found a short way down on the right-hand side opposite the Swan public House and just before the turning into Emery Down.

Situation

Swan Green Emery Down is a highly sought-after village in the New Forest, with its vibrant community, village hall, pub (The New Forest Inn), and church.

The delightful neighbouring village of Lyndhurst is within a short walk and has long been regarded as the 'Capital' of the New Forest, with its picturesque high street offering a wide range of boutique shops, everyday stores, cafes and restaurants, as well as access to the open forest from the end of the street.

For the yachtsman, the Georgian market town of Lymington (10 miles) offers a range of sailing facilities and access to the open waters of the Solent, whilst the historic and much famed village of Beaulieu is only 7 miles away.

The M27 Motorway is accessible from Junction 1 which is just a short drive providing access to Bournemouth, Southampton and the cathedral cities of Salisbury and Winchester. Ashurst train station (3.1 miles) and Brockenhurst train station (4.6 miles) are close by giving fast and easy access to London Waterloo.
