A Beautiful and amazing individual and unique four/five bedroom detached family home which is set down a private driveway in this wonderful Hertfordshire village.

The ground floor accommodation starts with a welcoming and wonderful entrance hallway which offers two storage cupboards and a hand built walnut staircase. There are double doors which lead through to the stunning open plan living and kitchen space with vaulted ceiling and exposed beams. The living area benefits from a wonderful fireplace and log burner and double doors out to the rear garden. The hand built kitchen offers a range of storage and surface areas as well as space for a range oven and fridge/freezer. The utility room houses storage and space and services for washing machine and tumble dryer, there is also further access to the rear garden. There are four bedrooms off of the hallway with an ensuite to the principal bedroom and the second bedroom. This floor is completed with the family bathroom. On the first floor there is an additional bedroom and bathroom suite.

Outside to the front is a wonderful block paved driveway providing ample off road parking. The front garden is laid to lawn with planted borders. The rear garden is enclosed by timber fence and is mainly laid to lawn with patio area. Again this is enclosed by planted borders.

Pirton is a small village and civil parish three miles north-east of Hitchin in Hertfordshire, England. The church, rebuilt in 1877, but with the remains of its 12th-century tower, is built within the bailey of a former castle. Pirton Grange, which was remodelled in the 18th century, is in the north of the parish, and is a particularly interesting, moated Elizabethan house with a timber framed gatehouse. Hammonds Farm and Rectory Farm, with its tithe barn, are also Elizabethan.
