Property Description

Unique and beautifully designed, four-bedroom, detached home with garden, driveway and detached single garage. Ideally located, in a modern and family-friendly development in Kirkcaldy, Fife.

Comprises an entrance hall, lounge, an open-plan kitchen/dining/family room, three double bedrooms, one single bedroom, an en-suite shower room, a family-size bathroom, a ground-floor WC and a utility.

The Riverwood at Victoria Wynd is part of an exclusive development, offering versatile rooms spread over two floors, allowing flexibility to create a home that fits your current family lifestyle.

A stunning modern home, offering an impressive and adaptable open-plan public room, flexible space for a home office, double glazing, and superb storage provision throughout.

This energy-efficient home also includes an integral garage, a driveway, French patio doors to a private garden, and well-kept communal grounds within the development.

A welcoming entrance hall affords access to the staircase leading to the upper hall, and throughout the ground floor, including a convenient WC and an understair storage cupboard. A stunning lounge space is set to the front; whilst to the rear, with French patio doors, an exceptionally spacious open-plan kitchen/dining/family room benefits from garden access and a separate laundry room, and presents an adaptable and comfortable setting for family life and entertainment.

On the upper floor, the hall affords access to three double bedrooms and a single bedroom, with the principal bedroom set to the front featuring an en-suite shower room; whilst the fourth bedroom could become a useful home office. Completing the accommodation, the bathroom is set to the side and offers space for a three-piece suite.
