GENERAL

An exceptional residence within Aberystwyth town centre.

The property has been fully refurbished to the highest order with no expense spared on fixtures and fittings to provide the home with ultimate luxury options throughout.

Sensitive and detailed assessment of the original character has been undertaken and these have been enhanced by the quality of the workmanship and the consideration of contemporary and modern fixtures blending into the original character of the building. The original staircase runs through the heart of the building with original sash fenestration allowing excellent natural light into the property.

The property is considered an ideal investment opportunity with 2 separate apartments located to the rear of the property within a converted garage project. These would be ideal for those seeking a home with an income or indeed an ideal multigenerational opportunity for those seeking to live with family members.

Viewing of the property is advised at the earliest opportunity as this won't be around for long!
