DESCRIPTION

Situated on a corner plot in a desirable location in the vibrant village of Wookey, is this three bedroom detached bungalow with garage, ample off-road parking and beautifully tended gardens to both the front and rear.

Upon entering the property is a generous entrance hall, giving access to all rooms and benefitting from two storage cupboards, one with shelving for towels and linens and the second offering space for coats and shoes along with 'day to day' storage. The sitting room is a bright room with large picture window looking out over the well-tended front garden, wall lights and a fireplace with open fire as the focal point. The kitchen/breakfast room has a range of oak country style kitchen units with space and plumbing for both a washing machine and slimline dishwasher. A large window looks out over the attractive rear gardens and the sink is positioned to make the most of the view. The gas fired boiler is neatly tucked away to one side and there is ample space for a breakfast table to seat four to six people. A door leads from the kitchen to the utility area with additional storage, space for further white goods and doors to both the front and rear garden. Adjacent to the kitchen is the dining room, which can accommodate a table to seat six to eight people comfortably and has sliding doors out to the patio and gardens beyond.

To the rear of the property, with a large picture window overlooking the garden, is a bright and well-proportioned double bedroom. A second double bedroom, also a generous size, has a large picture window overlooking the front garden. The third bedroom, again with a front aspect is single in size and could also be used as a home office, if desired. The family bathroom comprises; a bath, vanity wash basin and shower tray. Adjacent to the bathroom is a separate WC.

A large attic space, accessed by a loft ladder, is currently divided into two rooms and offers potential to be converted into further accommodation - subject to the necessary consents.

OUTSIDE

Wrought iron double gates open on to the tarmac drive, which runs past the lawn and sweeps across the front of the bungalow offering parking for five to six cars and leading to the single garage with light, power. The southwest facing front garden is mainly laid to lawn with two flower beds planted with mature shrubs and flowering plants. A mature laurel hedge runs along two sides offering privacy. A wooden gate, next to the garage, opens to a path which offers space for bins and recycling and leads to the utility area of the house. To one side is a greenhouse and a pedestrian path, leading along the side of the house to the rear garden.

The southeast facing rear garden is fully enclosed, with a patio running across the entire length of the

OUTSIDE (continued)

Property and offering plenty of space for garden furniture and entertaining. There is a large area of lawn with borders of mature hedging, trees, shrubs and cottage style planting. A summer house sits beneath the trees in one corner of the garden, offering a lovely shady spot to sit and enjoy the garden. Two flower beds, joined by a feature arch, are planted with attractive cottage style planting and give a lovely display of colour throughout the year. On one side a pedestrian path links back to the front garden and on the other side is a wooden shed and a small area discreetly housing the oil tank, along with a door to the utility area.

LOCATION

Wookey is a vibrant village with a strong community spirit surrounded by beautiful countryside in the Mendip Hills. Wookey has three public houses, a 14th century church, a primary school, founded in 1880, for children aged 4 to 11, a well-equipped play area and playing fields, a village hall, Wookey Farm & shop and 'Wookey Hub' shop and Café. The Post Office operates on three mornings a week from Burcott flour mill.

The picturesque Cathedral City of Wells is only two miles away and offers a range of local amenities and shopping facilities with four supermarkets (including Waitrose), as well as twice weekly markets, cinema, leisure centre, a choice of pubs and restaurants, dentists and doctors, several churches and both primary and secondary state schools.

There are also many highly-regarded independent schools (Prep & Senior) within easy reach, such as All Hallows Prep School, Downside School, Wells Cathedral School and Millfield School. For those travelling by train, Castle Cary station (which has direct services to London Paddington) is situated only twelve miles away. Both the City of Bristol and the Georgian City of Bath, a World Heritage Site, are located just 20 miles away and easily accessible.
