

This four bedroom semi-detached family house is situated on a rarely available cul-de-sac within the Lent Rise School and Burnham Grammar catchment zones. The superbly presented property has been skilfully extended providing flexible and spacious living accommodation. The ground floor features a 15ft bay fronted living room with a wood burning stove, a 17ft dining room with bi-folds onto the rear garden, an 18ft quartz fitted kitchen with a breakfast bar and range of high spec appliances, a utility room, a downstairs cloakroom and garage/storage. To the first floor there are four well-proportioned bedrooms (all with fitted cupboards) in addition to a contemporary three piece family bathroom - with the 22ft master bedroom benefiting from a newly fitted ensuite shower room. Externally the rear garden has been landscaped with a raised decked area ideal for summer dining and recently laid patio also incorporating a wood shed. To the front there is block paved driveway with parking for at least two cars leading to a single integral garage. This property is an excellent family home and comes onto the market in immaculate condition.
