COASTAL

A spacious four bedroom chalet style family home, conveniently located off a private gravelled track a short walk from the town centre. The house has recently been refurbished with a new open plan family kitchen, bi-fold windows and home office. The house has been extended to create an additional reception room with potential to use as a separate annexe.

The Property

Steps lead to the front door which opens into a spacious hallway with front window, ample under stairs storage and space for coats and boots. The living room is off here with twin aspect views across the delightful front garden. The kitchen family room is a great size with space for a dining room table and chairs, with double doors leading to the rear garden and impressive bi-fold windows allowing for wonderful aspect across the leafy garden. The kitchen is newly fitted with a range of worktops and cupboard units. There is a central island with breakfast bar, an integrated oven, fitted dish washer and space for a large fridge freezer. There is a small inner hallway which leads to the vaulted extension. This room has double doors to the garden.

First Floor

There is a utility room with sink, plumbing for washing machine and dryer and ample storage. From the inner hallway there is newly fitted shower room with wc and a door leading through to a double bedroom, which is also accessed from the main hallway. This section of the house could potentially be used as a separate one bedroom annexe. Adjacent to the first ground floor bedroom is another double bedroom, enjoying front aspect. Stairs rise to the first floor with two spacious double bedrooms, both large enough for bedroom furniture plus sofas and wardrobes. The principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room with the second bedroom having the sole use of the large family bathroom.

Situation

Ideally positioned a short walk from Lymington's historic Georgian High Street this location offers exceptional convenience with a wide range of shops, restaurants, bars and cafes only half a mile away. Lymington is also renowned for its excellent sailing facilities and also offers direct ferry services to the Isle of Wight as well as a rail connection to London via Brockenhurst in approximately 2 hours. There are beaches nearby at Milford on Sea and Barton on Sea with the expanse of the New Forest, with its unrivalled walks and rides, beginning just to the north at Buckland Rings, a superb Iron Age hill fort.

Grounds & Gardens

A long gravel track extends off the main Lower Buckland Road and leads to the property and its neighbour. The parking area comfortably allows for two vehicles. The front garden is laid to lawn, low maintenance with fence panel borders. There is a slightly raised area with an additional lawn and a new fully insulated home office. There is an electric charging point, outside tap and access down both sides of the house. The rear garden is completely private, mainly lawned and has a lovely gravelled area with outside table and chairs ideal for outside dining and a wooden shed for storage.

Directions
