6 Rectory Lane, Harrietsham, Maidstone, Kent. ME17 1HP.

Guide Price £600,000 Freehold

Property Summary

"I was pleasantly surprised with the amount of light that floods through this home, which really demonstrates the beautiful character features". - Sam Newman, Senior Sales Executive.

This beautiful three bedroom character house is believed to date back to the late eighteenth century. The property is full of period charm and the current owners have enjoyed family life here for over twenty years. This home should be viewed to be fully appreciated.

Upon entering through the front door, the entrance hall gives access to all ground floor reception rooms. To the right is a bright double aspect lounge overlooking the garden. The family room to the front was an extension of the property during the First World War and boasts a log burner. The kitchen was replaced under two years ago and has been finished to an exacting standard and most fitting with the period of the house. The ground floor concludes with a useful utility area/cloakroom.

To the first floor, there are three well proportioned double bedrooms which all look out over the rear garden. The largest bedroom has built in wardrobes. The family bathroom is also found on this level.

Externally, there is a front garden with driveway from the lane and a large mature rear garden which is approximately 100ft in length and backs onto open views.

This home is situated on a quiet no through lane and is positioned to benefit from all that Harrietsham village has to offer. There are convenience stores, a post office, public house and primary school. Harrietsham also offers close access to the M20 as well as a direct train line to London Victoria.
