Brilliant Transport Links!

This home is located just five minutes away from the very well-connected West Ham Station, which gives access to the DLR, Jubilee, District, and Hammersmith and City lines, C2C services and National Rail, as well as being only a short ride from Stratford International Station, you won't want for a better connected home.

The first-floor flat is spacious throughout, with a bright spacious lounge and two double bedrooms. Then you have a family bathroom and a fitted kitchen. Externally the property has its own parking space in a quiet community area which is surrounded by gardens and feels very secluded!

The prominent location is ideal for all transport not only with the trains but also bus routes and road routes as the A12 and A13 are only short drives away. Westfield Stratford shopping centre is just a stone's throw away and gives access to many High Street brands and names, fantastic eateries, and amenities.

This flat is an ideal first-time purchase so call now to view before it's too late!
