Outside to the front, the property is enclosed behind a low brick wall with inset wrought iron maintenance free fencing and pedestrian gate. The front garden is mainly laid to areas of lawn with various flower and shrub borders. Flagged path leading up to the front door. The garden wraps round to the left side of the house and is retained by box hedging and low picket fencing.

To the rear of the property, with access from St James Road, there are double wooden gates leading onto the gravel driveway providing parking for two vehicles in front of the detached double garage with a remote controlled electric up and over door, power and light and a pedestrian door to the rear of the garage. The rear garden has been laid to flag style paving for ease of maintenance with ornamental raised beds, outside lighting. A canopy runs along the rear of the property providing a covered seating area. There is a feature curved boundary wall and a pedestrian gate leading through to the garage and parking area.

Nestling on the Southern edge of the New Forest National Park, Sway is a fine example of a quiet yet thriving village community, renowned for its friendliness. The village offers a useful mainline rail connection (London Waterloo approximately 100 minutes) together with a range of shops, a highly regarded primary school, two public houses and a popular Tennis Club. The Georgian market town of Lymington, famed for its river, marinas, yacht clubs, boutique shops and coastline, is within an easy four-mile drive over the forest. The neighbouring New Forest village of Brockenhurst, again with a mainline rail connection, offers further leisure, shopping and educational amenities, and a popular 18-hole championship golf course.
